

ADOPTIONS INC.

The ART of Family Building.

Dear Adoptive Parent,

Allow me to be one of the first to say "CONGRATULATIONS" on your decision to adopt! You have begun an exciting journey in which you will create your very own unique adoption story - a story to be told for many years to come. Your journey may seem long, and there may be curves along the way, but you have great joy awaiting in the end.

My role in your adoption may be to assist you in financing and grant options. If you have already obtained complete financing, I rejoice with you. However, with many adoptions, financing comes gradually. Do not be discouraged. There are many options available for you. Enclosed you will find a packet of resources to assist you in financial decisions. After you have read through the material, contact me if you have any questions. Let me honestly inform you that completing grant applications can be quite time consuming. You will feel you have answered the same questions repeatedly. Keep focused on the vision of bringing home that precious child that is waiting for a forever, loving family - YOUR family.

Should you discover additional grant resources available to adoptive families, please share those with me so I can add them to the list. Also, without notice, foundations may suspend accepting grant applications. However, they will often give future time periods in which they expect to resume. The world of grants is in constant change. I will attempt to keep you updated.

Your family will be blessed in many ways because you have compassion for the fatherless. God bless you as you endeavor to fund your journey.

For the fatherless,
Camie Schuiteman

Financial Resource Guide

Getting Started

Organize

Organize all your adoption paperwork, documents, and communications in a 3-ring binder. Here are some suggested divisions: Home Study, Communications with MLJ Adoptions, Grant Applications, Dossier Documents, Finances, Travel, Adoption-Related Receipts, and Misc. I suggest keeping a photocopy of all checks and a record of all donations.

Make a Financial Plan

- Assess your current finances
- Estimate how much additional money you will need
- Explore all available options for funding

Decide if "Fundraising Assistance" is for you

- If so, you MUST begin to take advantage of all incoming resources.
- See Fundraising Programs

Options for Financing

Benevolent Funds

- Family & Friends - Once they understand your passion for the fatherless and how costly the venture will be, they may want to have a part in your venture.
  - Make a list of people who might generously support your goal.
  - Send them a letter clearly expressing your heartfelt desire to adopt and your financial need.
- Churches – Many churches have a discretionary fund set aside for benevolent ministries. An individual fund can also be set up through your local church specifically for your adoption, making all contributions tax deductible.
  - This adoption account must be brought to your governing board, voted upon, and recorded in the official minutes.
  - Make sure your donors receive receipts for end-of-the-year tax purposes.

Creative Fundraising

- Marathon – For recreational and avid runners, consider a marathon. Go to www.active.com for help planning.
- Garage Sale - Ask family and friends to have "clean your closets" day and donate any item that would sell. One man's junk is another man's treasure!
- Fundraising Dinner & Auction - Solicit goods and services from restaurants, theatres, and contractors for the auction. Have friends sponsor a table. Guests pay a set amount per plate.
- Scrapping Night - Have a scrapbooking party. Charge $20 for each attendee. Invite a consultant to demonstrate the newest techniques. Ask if she will donate a portion of her sales to your adoption fund.
- Sell T-Shirts
  - www.showhope.org
  - www.147millionorphans.com - Or design your own – ask an artistic friend to create an adoption-themed design.
  - www.sonscreens@yahoo.com – Jeannine Ferguson, Holland, Michigan - phone # (616)796-0581 - Create your own design. She makes t-shirts at a very reasonable cost.
- Individual Distributors - Ask supporters who have a business to sponsor a special adoption sale (examples: make-up, jewelry, kitchenware...) For a specified evening or time, all profit will be donated to your adoption fund.
- Handicrafts - Sell items you or your friends make at a craft fair, consignment shop, or online. If you anticipate a long wait, you have time for funds to trickle in.
- Golf Scramble - For golfing enthusiasts, try a golf scramble as a fundraiser. Check the following websites for organizational ideas:

Fundraising Tips

- Use YOUR gifts, talents, & hobbies to fundraise.
  - a beautician can hold a “cut-a-thon”
  - make and sell jewelry
  - a singer/musician can provide “singing telegrams”
- Get a friend who is outgoing and loves organizing to be your
  - “Fundraising Coordinator” It’s much easier to ask for money on someone else’s behalf rather than your own.
- Consider community & church calendars before scheduling a fundraiser.
  - Don’t schedule a community fund raiser on a high school football night.

Credit Cards

Save credit cards for the END of your journey. Airplane tickets and hotel fees can easily be put on credit cards. Check first though to make sure your card can be used at your destination. Know the credit limit; you may need to get it increased before your trip to be prepared for the unexpected.

Use one credit card for adoption expenses only. This is a convenient way to help record your expenses for tax purposes later.

Corporation Matching Gifts/Benefits

Many employers offer adoption assistance or benefits. Check with your employer's human resources division or these sites:

The federal government provides a tax refund per child after the adoption is complete. Details are available in the I.R.S. Tax Publication 98 and online at www.irs.ustreas.gov in downloadable form.

Considerations regarding grant applications:

- Make photo copies of all applications and documents before you submit them.
- You will find you are answering the same questions over and over. You can utilize the same information and fine-tune your answers for the next application.
- Take note when the grants are given - monthly, quarterly, or annually.
- Can you resubmit an application if denied?
- If you receive a grant, what is the process for obtaining the funds?
Some foundations only give money after you have returned from your trip and require submission of outstanding adoption bills. Knowing this information ahead of time will enable you to get the full amount promised at the completion of your adoption.
- If you receive a grant, what is the process for obtaining the funds?
- If the grant application is requiring that you use a 501 ( c)3 agency and you are a client of MLJ Adoptions, you need to list your agency as MLJ Adoptions AND The Global Orphan Foundation (GOF). The GOF is the charitable arm of MLJ and will allow us to receive awarded grant money on your behalf.
